A Seven Sentence Thanksgiving Story

Choose one of the Story Prompts below. Write the story in ONLY SEVEN Sentences!

See my example on the back of this page.

The Float That Won 1st Place

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is the most famous Thanksgiving parade in the country. Beautiful, creative floats are a big part of the Macy's parade, and you have been asked to design one. Write a story about your float.

Main Course Show Down

All the turkeys have run for the hills! The only other options for your main course are cows or chickens, but you are one of them. Write a story about how you will convince the farmer not to put you on his dinner table.

The Disguise that Fooled Everyone's Eyes

Turkeys everywhere have tried to disguise themselves during Thanksgiving. It hasn't worked yet, but they've hired you to help them. Write a story about how you will disguise all the turkeys.

My Kind of Thanksgiving

Your mom is too tired to host Thanksgiving this year. She's asked you to BE IN CHARGE! You can ask anyone to help you, so write a story about who you will ask, what you will eat, and what you will plan for activities.

My Pet Turkey

"Mom, can I keep him?" I begged. We were visiting the local turkey farm, and I had fallen in love with one of the turkeys. I couldn't imagine someone eating him for dinner.

"Okay, fine, but it's your responsibility," she finally agreed. Write a story about how you will take care of him.

The Terrific Turkey Trap

The turkey that was going to be your Thanksgiving dinner just escaped! You and your siblings have been instructed to go catch the turkey before company arrives. Quick -- write a story of how you are the hero of Thanksgiving!

Setting:	On the day before Thanksgiving, the Rainier family woke early on their farm.
Describe action:	Billy, the oldest of the Rainiers, looked out the dining room window and saw something unusual.
Explain the problem:	None of the turkeys was in the barnyard.
Give more detail:	The cows, sheep, and goats were in their places, but not one turkey was in sight.
Write the climax:	Billy called for his dad, and they both ran outside.
Conclusion:	Sure enough, all the turkeys had disappeared.
Resolution:	“Well,” sighed Mom, “I guess we’ll have to eat pancakes for Thanksgiving dinner!”
